Respectfully Submitted,

CALEB M. AMES, Road Agent.

Report Of The Chairman of the School Board.

It is but just to you, my fellow citizens, and to myself to remind those who are aware of the fact, and to inform others, that I accepted the office to which you elected me last Spring, with the distinct understanding that it would be impossible for me personally to supervise all the Schools of our Town, or to discharge all the duties usually incumbent on the chief School officer.

The work which I have been unable to do, however, has been satisfactorily accomplished, so far as I know. It has fallen to me to examine the applicants for schools, and for the most part I have found them well qualified for their important work. It is but just that I should make special mention of Mrs. Cox and Miss Pulsifer, in this connection. A mark of 100% would have been none to high for their examinations.

An unfortunate incident occurred in selecting a teacher for the True School. It is not necessary to explain the matter in detail.

Suffice it to say that the difficulty arose in consequence of misunderstanding on part of the applicant, which doubtless seemed to her to justify her and her friends in the course she took.

My visits have been confined to the Elm, the Worthen, the Prescott and the Squam Bridge Schools.

Miss Kimball taught the Spring term of the Elm School.

This lady gave evidence of superior qualification for her work and her pupils exhibited improvement at my second visit.

Miss Lena McLeod taught the Fall term and seemed enthusiastic in developing the intellects of her pupils and in arousing in them the spirit of patriotism.

It afforded me not a little pleasure to assemble with the children and their parents around the old brick school house, on a fine autumnal day in the latter part of October, and spread to the winds of heaven our country's emblem of sovereignty. Much credit is due Miss McLeod for her activity in this affair.

It was rarely good fortune for the children in the Worthen district that Miss Pulsifer was assigned to them.

The good promise of successful work afforded by this lady's examination was abundantly fulfilled; and I have naught but praise to say of her teaching ability.

This School was taught by Miss Dora Ames in the autumn.

Although it was her first attempt at teaching Miss Ames succeeded admirably. The benefit of recent instruction in the High School at Plymouth was apparent, and while it would be unreasonable to expect the results which experience alone can give, Miss Ames is deserving of merited approval.

The Prescott School was in the hands of my colleague, Mrs. Willoughby both terms. I was not able to visit it until late in the autumn, when I found that efficient was being done.

The pupils of this school should "gird up the loins of their mind" and make the most of their opportunities.

It remains for me to speak of the Squam Bridge School. We were fortunate in securing for this school a gentleman of several years' experience in teaching and a graduate of the State Normal School. He was highly recommended both by Dr. Rounds and by Mr. Burleigh and several people of the district have told me personally that they had never had a better school.

At both my visits, in the spring and in the autumn, I found excellent discipline maintained, but I must confess some disappointment in the appearance of the classes and at the ignorance of the subjects they were pursuing.

The teacher assured me that this was due to their timidity, which was doubtless true in part; but it is also true that well instructed pupils will be able to tell what they know.

Touching the use of the School house for religious purposes, I have this to say: as soon as I ascertained that a vote had prevailed in favor of this usage I instructed the teacher to allow the building to be opened both for Sunday and for evening meetings, on condition that the parties interested should leave it in a tidy condition as they found it.

To this report let me add my hope that increased interest may be taken in the education of the children and youth of Holderness, and that good and efficient teachers may be secured for the coming year.

❁ SCHOOL BOARD REPORT. ❁

GREENLEAF SCHOOL.

Spring Term of 10 weeks taught by Nona Sanborn. This was Miss Sanborns first term, although marked improvement was made in all studies, Arithmetic and Geography are deserving of special mention. Roll of Honor; 1st. term, Ora Chase.

Fall Term of 10 weeks taught by Rose R. Sanborn. Miss Sanborn needs no commendations from me. Her classes seemed interested and attentive in their work and their recitations very satisfactory. Roll of Honor, Ora Chase.

CARR SCHOOL.

Spring term of 9 weeks, Jason Sanborn teacher. Mr. Sanborn has taught this school a number of terms and has faithfully earned the reputation of a first class teacher. His methods are clear, sound and concise. His services in that district we believe are profitable and satisfactory. Roll of Honor; 1st. term, Hermon Benton.

TRUE SCHOOL.

Fall term of 8 weeks taught by Charlotte Goodale. Miss Goodale is a young lady of natural qualifications. She won the respect and confidence of her scholars by her kind and impartial treatment. I noticed that all her scholars were respectful, orderly and obedient, proving that the social side of education had not been neglected. Roll of Honor; Nora Mudgett. Mamie Berry. Alice Berry. There being 3 weeks due the True district it was thought best to engage Miss Agnes Hoyt of Meredith to finish.

I was unable to visit the school at its close.

EAST HOLDERNESS.

This school throughout the year was in charge of Mrs. Callie Baker, who being thoroughly acquainted with the disposition and needs of each scholar entered upon her work with confidence and her efforts told for good in all directions. Roll of Honor; 1st. term, Ethel J. Piper. Bennie W. Piper. R. Preston Piper. J. Alphonso Brown. 2nd. term, Cora M. Berry. Susie E. Piper. Ethel J. Piper. R. Preston Piper. J. Alphonso Brown.

It gives me pleasure to be able to report that the schools for the past year compare very favorably with former years, and the teachers in most cases given evidence of excellent ability yet improvement should be made in some directions at least; one of the worst features of system is the constant change of teachers.

In looking over the reports of the schools for this, and former years I notice that where the same teacher has been employed through the year the improvement is noticeable.

Two things I believe to be the duty of parents; first, to visit the school where your children attend thus, showing that you take an interest in its welfare and thus encouraging both teacher and pupils.

Second, never allow your children to remain at home unless absolutely necessary.

Respectfully,

WINNIE L. WILLOUGHBY.

CAER SCHOOL.

Fall term taught by Gertie M. Greenleaf, a young teacher, but energetic, and understood well the studies her scholars pursued.

The school showed marked improvement when I visited at its close. Roll of Honor; 2nd. term, Zaidee Huckins.

PRESCOTT SCHOOL.

Spring term taught by Mrs. Winnie Willoughby. At the close of this term, both teacher and pupils, very kindly welcomed parents, citizens, and several scholars from adjoining districts, to their pleasant school room, where several hours was quickly passed in listening to a review of the studies they had so eagerly been studying during the ten weeks that had passed.

Also to recitations music etc., and in which they was well deserving of much credit.

It is a mark of hearty co-operation, and approval, between teacher and parents to thus pass a few hours. Roll of Honor; 1st. term, Abbie Jewell. Georgia Jewell. Roscoe Lowe.

COXBORO' SCHOOL.

Spring term taught by Mrs. Etta W Cox. Her past terms of success in this school, can only add words of praise to the advancement of pupils during this term.

Fall term, taught by Nellie E. Webster. A teacher of experience, and a marked improvement was noticeable especially in Geography and Arithmetic. Roll of Honor; 1st. term, Eva B. Jones. Frank Smith. Florence F. Cox. 2nd. term, Florence

F. Cox. Abbie J. Cummings. Eva B. Jones. Willie Landrock.
Frank Smith.

Respectfully,
